

Descendants of Richard (I) Jordan

Generation No. 1

1. Richard (I)¹ Jordan^{1,2,3} was born Bet. 1620 - 1624 in England or Virginia, and died Bef. May 1687 in Surry Co., VA.. He married Alice Bef. May 1654 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.⁴. She died Aft. May 1687 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.^{5,6}.

Notes for Richard (I) Jordan:

Since Richard Jordan (II) was most likely born around 1640 I can not see Richard Jordan (I) being born much later than 1621.

It is highly unlikely that Richard Jordan (I) was less than 16 when he witnessed the first recorded deed on 25 Mar 1639/40, meaning he had to be born on or before 1624.

I have seen several Pedigree charts, some over 20 (as of 2004) years old showing Thomas Jordan b. 1600-England (died c. 1646-Upper Norfolk Co., VA.) as the parent of this Richard. No one has, as of yet, shown the proof for this, or the proof has been lost.

1. Richard Jordan I (? - 1687) His origins are a mystery. Although there are at least four other Jordans in the general area where he first appears, there is no evidence linking him to any of them. He does not appear in the 1624/5 Jamestown musters, nor among the headrights in Virginia patents.[1] His first appearance is as a witness to a deed on 25 March 1639/40 in Isle of Wight County.[2] The Isle of Wight records are only partially preserved in this time period, and there are few references to him in the surviving records. Other than an incidental mention of him in 1650[3] the next record is his purchase of 50 acres on Cypress Creek (then called Pagan Bay Creek) in Isle of Wight on 21 December 1653.[4] The will of Christopher Reynolds, dated a few months later on 1 May 1654, devises to one of his sons a piece of land "on the southerly side of the freshet swamp that Richard Jordan now liveth upon." [5] This land was surely near the land he had purchased, for the freshet swamp was a stream feeding Cypress Creek.

On 25 November 1657, Christopher Reynolds Jr., the son of the above Christopher Reynolds, received a patent for two separate parcels of 100 and 250 acres, which was entered into the patent book with the marginal note that it was "renewed in Richard Jordan's name the 18 March 1662 to whom it is assigned by the said Reynolds." [6] The assignment from Reynolds to Jordan actually took place in late 1657 or early 1658, for a later patent notes that Richard Jordan had sold the 100 acre portion back to Christopher Reynolds Jr. on 18 May 1658. [7] The remaining 250 acres was retained by Richard Jordan, and was apparently the land on which he lived for the next twenty years.

By 11 January 1661/2 a Richard Jordan Jr. begins to appear in the records, perhaps his son, and some subsequent records for Richard Jordan are as "Richard Jordan Senior". [8] By 1673 that person had moved into Surry County, while Richard Jordan I remained in Isle of Wight, appearing several times as a juror, appraiser, and witness through 1679. He may have participated in Bacon's Rebellion in 1676, or at least was publicly sympathetic to Bacon's cause. Following that rebellion, the King sent three commissioners to investigate its causes and assess the concerns of the colonists. Richard Jordan (as "Senior") and six other residents of Isle of Wight signed a petition dated 5 March 1676/7 to these commissioners listing twenty-six "grievances" with their government. [9] Less than a month later, on 27 March, they recanted the petition and appeared in court on 9 April to apologize for "all the false and scandalous reflection upon Governor

Sir William Berkeley, contained in a paper presented to the commissioners and promise never to be guilty again of the like mutinous and rebellious practices.”[10]

In 1679 he sold his lands in Isle of Wight County and sometime in 1680 or 1681 moved several miles west into Surry County, where his son Richard Jordan Jr. had settled several years earlier. On 30 March 1679 he and his wife Alice Jordan gave 100 acres to his son John Jordan, though how he acquired that land is unclear.[11] A few months later, on 10 May 1679, he received a patent renewing his old 250 acres and adding 113 acres of adjoining waste land.[12] Six months later, he sold that patent to Joseph Woory.[13] Woory later sued him over breach of contract, perhaps relating to this sale.[14] On 29 September 1679 he bought land in Surry County near his son Richard Jordan Jr., being separated from him by a single parcel.[15] In the same year, he apparently posted a bond in Isle of Wight for maintenance of his wife Alice.[16] Alice Jordan had released dower in the sale to Joseph Woory, and appears to have moved with Jordan in Surry County, so it's not clear how to interpret this record.

From 1681 through 1686, Richard Jordan Sr. appears in the Surry County tithables. He died sometime after June 1686, when he last appears as a tithable, and 3 May 1687 when Richard Jordan Jr. was granted administration “on the estate of his dec'd father Rich. Jordan.”[17] (Note that this was the first court meeting in more than two months, meaning he could have died somewhat earlier.) The inventory was recorded on 5 July 1687 by his son.[18] Richard Jordan's wife Alice evidently outlived him by a matter of a few days or weeks.[19] At the same 3 May 1687 court, the nuncupative (oral) will of Alice Jordan was proved and Charles Savadge, the executor, relinquished his role. The court neither appointed a replacement, nor ordered an appraisal, a strong indication that the will disbursed no property.[20] In fact, the will itself was not recorded, suggesting that it perhaps dealt with burial wishes, personal clothing, or some other request unrelated to property.[21]

There is one additional tantalizing record which may possibly bear on the immigration of Richard Jordan. On 30 May 1679 a patent was issued to Nicholas Sessums, an adjoining landowner, for transportation of 11 persons, including “Rich. Jordane & wife” and a second “Richd. Jorden.”[22] This may refer to the original importation and, if so, suggests that Richard Jordan and his wife arrived in Virginia with his son already born. The importer would not have been Nicholas Sessums of course; he clearly had purchased the headrights from someone else, as he did for several other patents.[23] He may, in fact, have purchased the rights from Richard Jordan Sr. himself. The delay of perhaps 40 years in the use of the rights is not necessarily significant, for Sessums claimed his own headright more than 45 years after his arrival.[24]

Although there were probably one or more daughters, only two sons can be identified, Richard Jordan II and John Jordan.

Notes for Alice:

It is unknown if this was a first or second wife of Richard Jordan (I).

Children of Richard Jordan and Alice are:

- + 2 i. Richard (II)² Jordan, born Bet. 1640 - 1644 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.; died Bef. 03 Oct 1699 in Surry Co., VA..
- + 3 ii. John (I) Jordan, born Abt. 1658 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.; died Bef. Oct 1687 in Isle of Wight Co., VA..

Generation No. 2

2. Richard (II)² Jordan (Richard (I)^{1,7,8,9} was born Bet. 1640 - 1644 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.¹⁰, and died Bef. 03 Oct 1699 in Surry Co., VA.. He married Elizabeth Reynolds^{11,12}, daughter of Christopher Reynolds and Elizabeth. She was born Abt. 1640 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.¹³, and died Aft. May 1700 in Surry Co., VA.¹⁴.

1.1. Richard Jordan II (c1640 - 1699) The Sessums patent suggests the possibility, however faint, that he was born prior to his father's first appearance in 1640. It is likely that he was of age by 11 January 1662 when a "Richard Jordan Jr." witnessed a deed for land formerly owned by Christopher Reynolds.[25] Presumably the same person witnessed the will of a neighbor as "Richard Jordan Jr." on 11 March 1667.[26] Other clues as well are consistent with a birth within a few years of 1640.[27] That he was his father's eldest son is clear, since he inherited the land of his intestate father.[28] He is likely the Richard Jordan who married Elizabeth Reynolds, daughter of Christopher Reynolds of Isle of Wight County, most likely sometime in the mid or late 1660s, as their earliest known child was born about 1668. Elizabeth Reynolds was under fifteen when her father wrote his will in 1654[29], but was married to Richard Jordan by the 11 March 1669 will of her brother John Reynolds, which left a bequest to his sister "Elizabeth Jordan and her son Richard Jordan." [30] That son was probably Richard Jordan III who, by other evidence, was born within a year or so of the date of that will. (For more on this, see the separate paper on which Richard Jordan married Elizabeth Reynolds.)

He preceded his father into Surry County by several years. By 1673 Richard Jordan Jr. had moved several miles southwest of his father, into Lawnes Creek parish of Surry County. He appears in the Surry County tithables as a head of household each year from 1673 through 1698, becoming Richard Jordan "Senior" after the death of his father in 1687. His first purchase of land in Surry County, a parcel nearly on the Isle of Wight border in Lawnes Creek parish, was made on 16 December 1676.[31] He and his wife Elizabeth sold that land in 1684, apparently to move about eight miles west into Southwarke parish.[32] He had bought part of a patent to Bartholomew Owen on Johnchecohunk Swamp sometime prior to 1684[33] and on 20 April 1684 was issued a patent for 260 acres adjoining it.[34] By 1685 he was living on that land, for he appears in the tithables for Southwarke parish from 1685 until his death. After his father's death, he and his wife Elizabeth sold his father's land in Lawnes Creek parish in 1688.[35] He increased his landholdings on Johnchecohunk Swamp with a patent for 200 acres in 1688[36] and another for 568 acres in 1689[37] (which included the 1688 patent) giving him a contiguous parcel of roughly 1000 acres on the north bank of Johnchecohunk Swamp. In 1695 he made gifts and sales of most of this land to his son Richard (330 acres) and son-in-law John Fort (300 acres).[38] He retained his original plantation, consisting of most of the original patent and the adjoining purchase, eventually transferring this remaining land to his younger sons in his will.

Richard Jordan died sometime in late 1698 or 1699, apparently some months prior to the proving of his will.[39] He appears in the 1698 tithables but not in 1699, when his son appears sans the "Jr." adjective. His will, dated 24 September 1695 and proved 7 November 1699, names nine children and his wife Elizabeth. It split the remaining plantation between sons Robert and Charles, entailing the land in the process, and provided clues to the ages of those sons. Six daughters, two of them married, were given livestock. (See the Chronology for more details.) His widow Elizabeth Jordan last appears in the records on 7 May 1700 when she presented the inventory.[40]

Charles Jordan (1677/8 - c1695/6) He first appears as a tithable of his father in 1694 and 1695, and as a witness to his father's deed to John Fort in 1695.[76] He is last mentioned in his father's will of 1695, which indicates that he was not yet 20. He appears in no further records, including the tithables lists of 1696-1703. All subsequent references in Surry and Isle of Wight to a Charles Jordan can be shown to refer to the son of George Jordan. Charles Jordan almost certainly died shortly after his last appearance in the records in late 1695, evidently unmarried and without heirs. Under the terms of his father's will, the land that he was to have inherited would have reverted to his brother Robert Jordan. Later records make it clear that Robert Jordan did, in fact, own that land.[77]

John Jordan (c1650? - 1687) He first appears as a witness in Isle of Wight to an undated record recorded in 1673.[104] As noted above, his father gave him 100 acres in 1679. On 7 March 1682, his wife Jane gave a power of attorney to claim her rights in that gift.[105] Beyond these few citations, he does not seem to appear in Isle of Wight records until his death sometime before 10 October 1687, when his wife Jane was granted administration of the estate.[106]

Notes for Jane:

Jane might have been Jane Brown according to another researcher.

Children of John Jordan and Jane are:

- + 13 i. John (II)³ Jordan, born Abt. 1679 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.; died Aft. Apr 1726 in Chowan Co., NC..
- + 14 ii. Solomon Jordan, born Abt. 1681 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.; died Mar 1772 in Chowan Co., NC..

4. Richard (III)³ Jordan (Richard (II)², Richard (I)¹)^{24,25,26,27,28} was born Bet. 1668 - 1669 in Surry Co., VA.^{29,30}, and died Abt. 1751 in Surry Co., VA..

Notes for Richard (III) Jordan:

Clues have yet to be found as to the name of his wife or the ages of his sons or if he had any daughters. The Surry records do not have any indication of more than the 3 sons.

Richard Jordan III (1668/9 – c1751) He first appears as a tithable of his father in 1685, indicating a birth date after June 1668 but before March 1669 when he was apparently the child mentioned in the will of his uncle John Reynolds.[41] He appears in each tithables list thereafter, being listed separately from his father in 1688, and then listed separately from 1690 continuously through the last available tithables list in 1703. His appearance in the tithables as a separate taxpayer from 1690 seems further indication that he reached 21 about that time. On 10 September 1695 his father gifted him with 130 acres and sold him another 200 acres, at least one parcel of which was entailed.[42] He appears as a freeholder in court records beginning in late 1694.[43] He purchased the 300 acres his father had sold to John Fort in 1709 and added an adjoining patent of 390 acres in 1725.[44] Like his father, he amassed a considerable amount of land on Johnchecohunk Swamp, selling only one parcel of it. Later records show that he apparently broke the entail on the land given to him by his father and sold it to his son Joseph Jordan in 1737.[45] He appears fairly frequently in Surry records through 15 May 1728 when he is mentioned as a proccessioner.[46] Oddly, he appears in no further Surry records until his death more than twenty years later. His will, dated 27 November 1749 and proved 19 November 1751, distributes his remaining land, a total of 900 acres, among his sons William, Benjamin, and Joseph Jordan but mentions no other children.[47] His wife's name does not appear anywhere in the records, nor are there any clues to possible daughters. The Surry records do not suggest the existence of any sons other than the three named in his will. There are no clues to the ages of the three sons, and few clues to their order of birth, so the birth dates and sequence below are just guesses.

Children of Richard (III) Jordan are:

- 15 i. William⁴ Jordan^{31,32,33,34}, born Bet. 1694 - 1700 in Surry Co., VA.; died 1758 in Surry Co., VA..

Notes for William Jordan:

Probably the oldest child since he was the executor of his father's Will and received the most land.

Had no children based on his Will dated 18 January 1758 which leaves his estate to his brother Joseph and to Joseph's sons Henry, Stephen and Jesse.

William Jordan (c1695-1705? – 1758) He is listed here as the eldest child based on his being the executor of his father and the recipient of the greatest amount of land. His first appearance in the records may have been his witness to a neighbor's deed in 1728.[48] Due to the presence in Surry of two William Jordans of about the same age, the first record of him we can be certain of is his 1737 patent for land adjoining his father.[49] Oddly, the patent adjoined both his father's 1724 patent and this father's portion of the Richard Jordan II 1689 patent, but the survey names the occupier of those lands as William Jordan himself, not his father, suggesting that his father had previously installed him on those lands. He evidently did not hold title, for those lands were left to him in his father's will of 1749. On 18 March 1739, he sold half of his 1737 patent, with no wife releasing dower.[50] He appears in a number of records thereafter, most of no particular genealogical value other than his father's will. William Jordan evidently died unmarried and without issue, for his will, dated 18 January 1758 and recorded on 16 May 1758, leaves his estate to his brother Joseph Jordan and to Joseph's sons Henry, Stephen and Jesse Jordan.[51] His remaining land, some 400 acres, was left to his nephews Henry Jordan and Stephen Jordan who sold it outside the family a few years later.

- + 16 ii. Benjamin Jordan, born Bet. 1694 - 1720 in Surry Co., VA..
- + 17 iii. Joseph Jordan, born Bet. 1694 - 1719 in Surry Co., VA.; died 1770 in Surry Co., VA..

5. Elizabeth³ Jordan (Richard (II)², Richard (I)¹)³⁴ was born Abt. 1674 in Surry Co., VA., and died Abt. 1743 in Surry Co., VA.. She married John Fort³⁴ Abt. 1687 in Surry Co., VA., son of Phillis Champion and Elias Fort. He was born Bet. 1665 - 1672 in Isle of Wight Co., VA., and died Bef. 10 Mar 1723/24 in Surry Co., VA..

Children of Elizabeth Jordan and John Fort are:

- 18 i. George⁴ Fort, born Bet. 1694 - 1700 in Surry Co., VA.; died Bef. 1761 in Edgecombe Co., NC..
- 19 ii. William Fort, born Bet. 1696 - 1700 in Surry Co., VA.; died 1746 in Edgecombe Co., NC..
- 20 iii. Elias Fort, born 1700 in Surry Co., VA.; died 1766 in Halifax Co., NC..
- 21 iv. John Fort, born 1702 in Surry Co., VA.; died 1746 in Craven Co., NC..
- 22 v. Richard Fort, born Bet. 1704 - 1717 in Surry Co., VA.; died 1745 in Craven Co., NC..
- 23 vi. Thomas Fort, born Bet. 1704 - 1717 in Surry Co., VA.; died Aft. 1769 in Dobbs Co., NC. (formerly Johnston Co.).
- 24 vii. Hannah Fort, born 1705 in Surry Co., VA..
- 25 viii. Sarah Fort, born 1706 in Surry Co., VA.; died Bef. 1724 in Surry Co., VA..
- 26 ix. Mary Fort, born 1710 in Surry Co., VA.; died 1793 in Carteret, NC.. She married William Bynum Abt. 1723 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.; born 1690 in Surry Co., VA.; died 1746 in Edgecombe Co., NC..

12. Robert³ Jordan (Richard (II)², Richard (I)¹)^{35,36,37,38} was born Abt. 1684, and died 1710. He married Martha³⁹.

Robert Jordan (1684/5 - 1710) He was under 16 when his father wrote his will, and was apparently about 11 or so. He makes his first appearance in the tithable lists in 1701 through 1703 in his brother's household, thus suggesting a birth date in late 1684 or early 1685. He is also on a November 1701 militia list, confirming that he was 16 by that year.[78] He was not listed among the 1704 quit rents, likely because he was not yet 21 (meaning that his guardian probably paid the quit rent on his inherited lands). In fact, he is not mentioned again in any record until 7 November 1710, when his wife Martha Jordan was granted administration of his estate.[79] She presented his inventory a few months later.[80] Robert Jordan inherited land from his father and, under the terms of the will, also inherited the land of his brother Charles Jordan. These parcels, which were entailed, were later owned by a younger Robert Jordan, presumably his son. Though his widow would surely have remarried, what became of her is unknown.

Children of Robert Jordan and Martha are:

- + 27 i. Robert⁴ Jordan.
- + 28 ii. Elizabeth Jordan.
- 29 iii. Margaret Jordan. She married Robert House Jr..

Margaret Jordan (c1670? - ?) She had married Robert House Jr. as his second wife by the time of her father's will. Robert House Jr. was probably considerably older, as he had appeared in the tithables in 1674 and was married to Martha Spilltimber, the only daughter of Anthony Spilltimber, by early 1682.[93] They had only one child, a daughter named Mary who was born circa 1684.[94] Robert House Jr., who may have been a carpenter, had probably remarried to Margaret Jordan by 1693, according to a November 1693 court record which mentions his pregnant, but unnamed, wife.[95] He had perhaps married Margaret as early as 1 March 1690/1 when he purchased land from Nathaniel Roberts adjacent to Richard Jordan II.[96] His father having died in the interim, he was Robert House "Senior" when he and his wife Margaret sold the land on 10 September 1695.[97] Two weeks later, Robert Jordan's will left a breeding sow to his daughter "Margarett House".[98] Robert House died by 7 March 1699, when his widow Margaret was granted administration of the estate.[99] A year later, on 7 May 1700, Margaret House was indicted for having a bastard child, and several months later identified the father as Richard Holliman.[100] She may have married him, for Richard Holliman had acquired a wife named Margaret by 1 May 1703 when she released dower in two deeds.[101] Richard Holliman's will, dated 6 January 1711 and proved 20 June 1711, left a lifetime interest in his "manor plantation" to his wife Margaret and divided his land among his minor sons Richard, William, Thomas and Samuel Holleman.[102] The sons may all have been Margaret's. Apparently they reached majority by 1727, when they began selling interests in their inherited land.[103] There seems to be no record of the child born in 1694, who likely died young, or of any other child from her marriage to Robert House.

- 30 iv. Rachel Jordan.

Rachel Jordan (c1677 -) She was apparently over 16 but not yet married when her father's will was written. She may well have been married by the time the will was proved. I found no further record of her.

Of the three youngest daughters, I note that there is no record of guardians being chosen or appointed, nor is there a record of any accounting of the estate. Since they were to receive their property at 16, this suggests that all three daughters may have reached 16 by the time their father's will was proved and the inventory recorded. A closer look at the inventory itself might help to clear this up.

First appearance of John Jordan in Chowan Co., NC.

John Jordan (c1680? - ?) He is apparently the John Jordan who appears on the 1704 quit rent roll with 100 acres, evidently his inherited land. Like his father, he apparently married a woman named Jane. On 9 November 1704, John Jordan and his wife Jane sold the 100 acres given to his father by Richard Jordan Sr., describing it as having descended to him as the heir of his father John Jordan.[107] He does not seem to appear later in Isle of Wight or Surry records. [By his generation, there was another contemporary John Jordan, and the subsequent records are difficult to differentiate.[108]] He may have moved to Chowan County, North Carolina, where a John Jordan and Jane Jordan witnessed a deed in 1716[109] and another deed in 1725.

Children of John Jordan and Jane are:

- 34 i. John (III)⁴ Jordan, born Abt. 1699 in Isle of Wight Co., VA..
- + 35 ii. Charles (I) Jordan, born Abt. 1700 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.; died 03 Mar 1773 in Chowan Co., North Carolina.
- 36 iii. Edward Jordan, born Abt. 1702 in Isle of Wight Co., VA.; died Aft. Oct 1739.

16. Benjamin⁴ Jordan (Richard (III)³, Richard (II)², Richard (I)¹)^{43,44,45,46} was born Bet. 1694 - 1720 in Surry Co., VA.. He married Mary.

Notes for Benjamin Jordan:

It is not 100% certain that these are 2 sons of Benjamin, but they appear so. Benjamin apparently sold his land in Surry and ended up in a part of Surry which became part of Sussex Co. The 2 sons shown here are listed in the Parish records of Albemarle with Godparents who were formerly neighbors of our Benjamin in Surry.

Benjamin Jordan (c1695-1705? - ?) He first appears in the Surry records on 12 July 1732, when he bought land just south of Johnchecohunk Swamp on the north side of the Blackwater.[52] Subsequent references to him are consistent with residence there. He appears in several Surry records, with his penultimate appearance being in 1751.[53] He had received 250 acres in his father's will and, as Benjamin Jordan of Sussex County, he sold that inherited land in 1756.[54] He had apparently moved south of the Blackwater into the part of Surry which had become Sussex County in 1754. I did not track him in Sussex County records, but he seems highly likely to be the Benjamin Jordan with a wife Mary, for whom the birth and baptism of two sons, Benjamin (in 1744) and Thomas (in 1745), were recorded in the Albemarle parish register.[55] The godparents of those two sons were both neighbors and names which appear with Benjamin Jordan in several Surry records. Whether he remained there or moved elsewhere is unclear. It is possible that he was the same Benjamin Jordan who settled in Pitt County, North Carolina in the 1760s.

Children of Benjamin Jordan and Mary are:

- 40 i. Benjamin⁵ Jordan^{47,48}, born 16 Mar 1743/44 in Sussex Co., VA..
- 41 ii. Thomas Jordan^{49,50}, born 12 Mar 1744/45 in Sussex Co., VA..

17. Joseph⁴ Jordan (Richard (III)³, Richard (II)², Richard (I)¹)^{51,52,53} was born Bet. 1694 - 1719 in Surry Co., VA.⁵⁴, and died 1770 in Surry Co., VA.⁵⁴. He married Hannah.

Joseph Jordan (? - 1770) He was probably not the eldest son. If he were, there would be little reason to break an entail on land he would have received anyway. He first appears in the records on 16 January 1736 witnessing a deed.[56] As mentioned above, his father deeded him the entailed land the following year. He appears very frequently thereafter in Surry records. He perhaps had more than one wife. One wife may have been the daughter of a neighbor named William Cooper, whose 1756 will named Jesse Jordan and Jane Jordan as grandchildren.[57] Among the daughters mentioned was one named Hannah, who may have been Jordan's wife. The first record of a wife is the release of dower by "Joanna" less than two years before his death, a name that seems likely to be a mistranscription of Hannah. His will, dated 11 October 1770 and proved 20 November 1770, names his wife Hannah, sons Richard, William, and Stephen Jordan, and refers to "all my children" who are otherwise unnamed.[58] His brother William Jordan's will had named two more sons: Henry and Jesse. The widow Hannah Jordan released her dower interest in a land sale two years later, but is not mentioned again.[59] However, she may be the "mother" mentioned in the Revolutionary pension of Richard Jordan below.

Children of Joseph Jordan and Hannah are:

- 42 i. Jane^{55,56} Jordan
- 43 ii. Stephen Jordan^{57,58,59,60,61,62,63}. He married ? Adkins.

Stephen Jordan He inherited land in the 1758 will of his uncle William Jordan. On 18 September 1770, he and his brother Henry sold their inherited land as a single parcel.[63] In 1780, he bought land about a mile south of the original Richard Jordan II plantation.[64] Anthony Adkins' will of 1781 named him a brother-in-law.[65] He was administrator of his brother Henry Jordan's estate in 1782.[66] He appears in the 1782 state census as head of a household of 7 whites. I did not track him further.

- + 44 iii. Henry Jordan, born Bef. 1737; died 1782.
- + 45 iv. Jesse Jordan, born Bef. 1742 in Surry Co., Virginia.
- 46 v. Richard Jordan^{63,64,65,66}, born Abt. 1760 in Surry Co., Virginia; died Bef. 1834. He married Anna.

Notes for Richard Jordan:

This could be the Richard Jordan who applied for a Revolutionary War pension from Pitt Co., North Carolina in 1832 giving his age as 72-73 and being born in Surry Co., VA.

A brother-in-law Burwell Edwards (which could be the one from Isle of Wight, VA.) was named in the pension file.

Richard Jordan His father's will left a gun to his son Richard Jordan, who is not mentioned again in any Surry records. He may be the Richard Jordan (c1759 – c1835) who applied for a Revolutionary War pension from Pitt County, North Carolina in 1832, giving his age as 72 or 73 and birthplace as Surry County.[72] His pension mentions that he left his discharge with his mother, perhaps Hannah Jordan, and also mentions a brother-in-law named Burwell Edwards (apparently the one from Isle of Wight County). His widow Anna applied for a widow's pension in 1834.

William Jordan (9 January 1762 - c1850) As the orphan of Joseph Jordan, he was bound out on 21 April 1772.[73] He seems to be the same William Jordan who applied for a Revolutionary War pension in 1835 while living in Newton County, Georgia stating that he was born in Surry County, Virginia on 9 January 1762, and served from Edgecombe County, North Carolina.[74] The pension was rejected and a second application filed in 1844 from Randolph County Georgia.[75]

Robert Jordan (c1706 - 1761) He is first mentioned in 1735.[81] On 21 March 1738/9, Robert Jordan "aged 32" deposed that he had known John Person for 26 years before his death and knew his handwriting.[82] [John Person, or Parson, was the immediate neighbor to the portion of the Richard Jordan II plantation inherited by Robert Jordan.[83]] Further confirmation that he owned the old Richard Jordan

plantation is found in a 1747 court record regarding a mill spanning Johnchecohunk Swamp.[84] Likewise, the land which had earlier been owned by Robert and Margaret House (and which bordered the land left to Robert and Charles Jordan) eventually came into the hands of William Dewell, when it was described as adjoining Robert Jordan.[85] His apparently died in Surry County in 1761, for his widow Margaret Jordan was granted administration of his estate on 21 October 1761.[86] The inventory was presented on 17 November 1761.[87]

Children of Robert Jordan and Margaret are:

- 48 i. William⁵ Jordan⁷³.

William Jordan (? - by1771) was apparently the eldest son of Robert Jordan. The William Dewell land mentioned above, which adjoined Robert Jordan in 1759, was described in 1766 as bordering William Jordan.[88] A 1771 deed of the dower interest in this land by Margaret Jordan (perhaps the widow of Robert Jordan) seems to confirm the existence of a son William, though it also indicates that he was dead.[89]

Elizabeth Jordan, probably the eldest daughter, married John Fort, who was deeded part of Richard Jordan's 1689 patent on 10 September 1695.[91] John Fort's will, dated 21 October 1724 and proved 10 March 1725, names nine children: sons Richard and Thomas (minors); sons John, William, George, and Elias; daughters Hannah Phillips, Mary (Bynum), and Sarah.[92] See separate Fort document for more detail.

Children of Elizabeth Jordan and John Fort are:

Notes for Charles (I) Jordan:

Supposedly started a family notebook in 1722. He could have possibly named his wife as Abigail White in that.

Henry Jordan (c1740? - 1782) He inherited land from his uncle William Jordan, and sold it in 1770 (see above). He was married to Mary Amiss by 4 January 1763 when the will of Sylvester Amiss named his daughter Mary Jordan.[67] Henry and Mary Jordan were later among the Amiss heirs who sold her father's land in 1767.[68] Both Henry and his wife were dead by 26 November 1782 when his brother Stephen Jordan was granted administration of his estate.[69] The following year Mary Jordan, orphan of Henry Jordan chose her uncle Lewis Pully (who had married Mary Amiss' sister) as her guardian.[70] He apparently had two sons, James Jordan and Randolph Jordan. In 1792 Randolph Jordan, as "heir at law" of James Jordan, sold land he described as descended from Henry Jordan to James Jordan.[71]

Jesse Jordan He may have been the Jesse Jordan named as a grandson by William Cooper's will in 1756.[60] He is named a son of Joseph Jordan in the 1758 will of his uncle William Jordan.[61] Though he appears in no other Surry records, he may be the same Jesse Jordan who, with wife Priscilla, later appears south of the Blackwater in the records of Sussex County. The Albemarle parish register mentions the birth of John Jordan in 1773 and Benjamin Jordan in 1775.[62] A Jesse Jordan also appears in the 1789 Sussex tax list. Notes for Jacob Jordan:

It is nearly certain that our Thomas and Elisha Jordan, the main subjects of this document, are descendants of Jacob Jordan. The main problem is the absolute proof of which child of Jacob's they descend from.

Jacob appears to be the main progenitor of the Clermont and Brown Co., OH. Jordans. Supposedly he continued the family notebook of his dad.

Notes for Joseph Jordan:

This entry is speculation based on Ancestry.com data and the fact that the first child of my Thomas is named Joseph and the Will that exists of Joseph Jordan from Chowan, March 21st 1800, with a son Thomas. Also a Thomas, "Son of Joseph", is listed in the 1830 Chowan County Census. This Thomas is then gone by 1830, which is about the time our Thomas would have been either in Ohio or on the road to Ohio.

Considering the way this Joseph's Will was written, it is as if the children Thomas and Mary are children of Mourning but the other children are children of his , perhaps first wife, Rachael Smith. But this is just conjecture.

There is also the slim chance that the Will mentioned in the sources is not this Joseph's Will. But the connection between his brother Josiah and the Elliots (i.e. Miles Elliot) makes this unlikely.

More About Joseph Jordan:

Religion: Quaker

Notes for Mourning:

Mourning was a second spouse and so some of the children that I have under her may be to Rachel Smith.

1819- Mourning Jordan, of Chowan Co., NC., widow of Joseph Jordan, made her will, Sept. term 1819. She named sons William and John; daughters Pennice and Fanny Jordan; "all my children", son William, executor. Witness: William Walton.

I am uncertain if this is the will of our Mourning. The son of our Joseph and Mourning, Thomas Jordan named one of his daughters "Fanny" as well. This could be a clue that this is our Mourning. The sons she mentions may be to a different husband. There was no John in the will of Joseph , nor a Pennice or Fanny. But they may have been minors and so unmentioned.

Children of Joseph Jordan and Mourning are:

- + 106 i. Thomas⁷ Jordan, born Abt. 1793 in North Carolina; died Nov 1846 in Edenton, Clermont Co., Ohio.

Old Edenton (Jordan) Cemetery is located on the north side of the Milford and Woodville free turnpike, west of Edenton, and near the former residence of Amos Jordan. It was set apart as a public cemetery by Jacob Jordan in 1813. It's area is about one acre. The first person buried there was a man by the name of McKinley. At present it is not used, and is full. It is next to the most populous city of the dead in Clermont Co.

In connection with the various churches, small cemeteries are maintained, and in 1858, Edenton Lodge of Odd-Fellows set aside 2 acres of ground for burial purposes. This is the new IOOF Edenton Cemetery. The first person buried there was Daniel Barr, Oct. 18, 1859.

He married Elizabeth Ford^{170,171,172,173} 12 Jun 1820 in Chowan County, North Carolina¹⁷⁴, daughter of William Ford and unknown. She was born Abt. 1797 in North Carolina, and died Abt. 1853 in Edenton, Clermont Co., Ohio.

Notes for Thomas Jordan:

In the 1850 census, Elizabeth Jordan and family live next to William Dail and his wife Mary (Jordan), possible niece of our Thomas Jordan (Sr.) (See Joseph Jordan/Darkis Ford family). Willam Dail came from the Dails of Chowan Co., NC. His wife Mary is the believed daughter of Joseph Jordan, possible brother of Thomas.

There is a Maria Jordon (age 22) living a few pages away in 1850 Clermont County, Wayne Twp, Ohio. She is living with farmer Joseph Sly. She has a child with her named Elizabeth R. Jordon. This appears to be Maria Sly who married Miles Jordan (son of Joseph and Darkis Ford).

There is an obvious relationship between our Thomas Jordan and the families of Silas V. Jordan (founder of Edenton, OH.), as well as Harrison Jordan and his brother Joseph, also in Clermont County. It seems that our Thomas and Silas may have been 1st cousins, with Silas' dad Jacob (proven) being Thomas' uncle.

It is possible our Thomas Jordan is NOT in the 1830 Census for NC. He might have been "on the road" at that point.

As recorded by a Boyscout many years ago, burial plot is Row 5, Stone 16. There is nothing recorded for stone 17 but the son Thomas (Jr.) and his wife are buried at Stone 18. HOWEVER, In Dec. of 2004 I visited the graves of my great-great-great grandfather Thomas and his son Thomas and this appears incorrect. The son Thomas is in a plot with his wife and is clearly marked. On each side of this plot are markers. One says Father and one says Mother. I can assume these are the parents of Thomas because near the "Father" marker was a concrete block which had the initials T.J. on it for Thomas Jordan. So if Thomas Jordan (Jr.) is at stone 18 then his mother is stone 17 and his father is at stone 19. At stone 16 was a marker for an infant daughter of Thomas Jordan Jr. It was hard to read, which might have led to the Boyscout's error.

Thomas Jordan is shown as having 10 children in 1840 census.

Near Edenton, OH. there is a Jordan Road named after our Jordans who lived in the area. Garrison Spurling Rd. turns into Jordan Rd. around when it crosses over Locust Creek. Goes to Warren Co. line just west of Woodville.

Term of Sept. 49 settled & found balanced.

Recorded September 28th 1849. Clermont Co., Ohio, Records Office, Batavia, OH.
Elizabeth Jordan bought 40 acres of the land of deceased Thomas Jordan, bordering William Dail and Joseph Jordan land. She bought it at auction, 16th of October 1849, held by Joseph Jordan, her son. She bought it for $250. Still part of parcel No. 3337.

More About Thomas Jordan:

Burial: 1846, IOOF Edenton Cemetery, Wayne Twp., Clermont Co., OH.
Emigration: Abt. 1830, To Clermont Co. , Ohio

Notes for Elizabeth Ford:

Elizabeth was the widow of Jethro Woodward before she married Thomas Jordan. Her first 2 children may be from Jethro.

Excerpts from Will:

2nd, I give and bequeath to my daughter Martha Ann my(?) table and to my son Joseph my(?)
.....(?)

3rd, I do hereby appoint Joseph Jordan executor of this my last Will and Testament.

Witness: A. F. Morrison, Charles Hunter(?).

July Term 1847, Clermont Co. Courts

Thomas Q. Ashburn appointed guardian of minor children Thomas Jordan, Martha Ann Jordan, John Jordan, Elisha Jordan and Mary Jordan.

More About Elizabeth Ford:

Burial: IOOF Edenton Cemetery, Wayne Twp., Clermont Co., OH.

Children of Thomas Jordan and Elizabeth Ford are:

- 136 i. Fanny⁸ Jordan.
- 137 ii. James Jordan.

Notes for James Jordan:

There is a James Jordan living next to Lindseys in Clermont County, Ohio census of 1840. He is 20-30 and so is his wife. Pg. 222.

There is a James Jordan in Indiana census of 1870, in Hendricks County, Brown Twp. Pg. 13 in Ancestry.com. Pg. 270 in census. Born 1822. Which could be about the correct age. He was gone about or before 1850 from Ohio.

In the Brown Co., OH. Probate Court, Record of Births, Book 1:

Pg. 16 No name female, Feb. 5 1868, Brown Co., parents: James Jordan, Jordan (listed as living in Union Twp.)

Pg. 38 No name female, Nov. 17, 1869, Brown Co., Levanna, parents: James Jordan, Mrs. James Jordan

Pg. 186 Jas Jordan, Oct. 8 1872, Brown Co., Union, Parents: Jas Jordan, Cudrilla Henry (I could not find this family in the 1880 Ohio census at all, noted: Jan 2006)

IT IS UNKNOWN WHO THIS JAMES JORDAN IS. It is possible he is the son of Elizabeth to another spouse.

- + 138 iii. Joseph Jordan, born Bet. 1817 - 1821 in Chowan Co., NC.; died 09 Jan 1896 in Tipton Co., IN..
- + 139 iv. Henry Jordan, born Abt. 1822 in Chowan Co., NC..

108. Joseph⁷ Jordan (Joseph⁶, Jacob⁵, Charles (I)⁴, John (II)³, John (I)², Richard (I)¹)^{176,177,178,179} was born in Chowan Co., North Carolina, and died Bef. 1835. He married Dorcus Ford^{180,181} 08 Dec 1804 in Chowan County, North Carolina^{182,183}, daughter of William Ford and unknown. She was born in Chowan Co., North Carolina, and died in Ohio.

Notes for Joseph Jordan:

This entry is speculation. It is my belief that this is the possible older brother of my Thomas Jordan. This Joseph had several children who migrated to Clermont County Ohio. It is also possible that this is the father of my Thomas and that Darkis Ford was a second wife of Joseph, but this seems unlikely.

Children of Joseph Jordan and Dorcus Ford are:

- + 148 i. Mary⁸ Jordan, born Abt. 1806 in North Carolina; died Bet. 1860 - 1865.
- + 149 ii. Milly Jordan, born Abt. 1809 in North Carolina.

Notes for Joseph Jordan:

Appointed Administrator of Father's estate. Bond dated Aug. 18 1848. Securities William Cramer and Elizah Newton.

Pg. 213 of Administrators and Executors Docket 1839-1853, in Batavia, Clermont Co., Probate court, claims:

Dec. 31st 1846. Joseph Jordon appointed Administrator of Thomas Jordon. Bond dated Dec. 31, 1846. Security William Cramer and Jesse Nash. Accts. filed for settlement Sep. 1 1849, Settled account balance 1850.

In the May Term (Clermont Co.), 1848 pg. 190-195, Joseph filed a complaint against his family. Atty. William H. Baldwin. The complaint is seeking 10 acres of ground out of 50 acres owned by his father, near Stone Lick Creek. Joseph was promised the land but his father died before deeding it to him. He lost the case and had to give up the 10 acres plus pay $40 to the court.

Cannot Write, in 1870 census.

More About Joseph Jordan:

Occupation: 1870, Farmer

Notes for Jane Nash:

Says she was born in 1816 on 1870 Census. I do not believe she was that old at the time.

Children of Joseph Jordan and Jane Nash are:

- + 180 i. Wilford⁹ Jordan, born Nov 1846 in Ohio.

- 181 ii. Mary Jane Jordan²³⁵, born Abt. 1850 in Ohio.
- 182 iii. Luncinda Jordan²³⁶, born Abt. 1853 in Indiana.
- 183 iv. Lydia A. Jordan²³⁷, born Abt. 1858 in Indiana.

139. Henry⁸ Jordan (Thomas⁷, Joseph⁶, Jacob⁵, Charles (I)⁴, John (II)³, John (I)², Richard (I)¹)^{238,239,240} was born Abt. 1822 in Chowan Co., NC.. He married Hannah Nash²⁴¹ 16 Mar 1845 in Clermont Co., OH.²⁴¹. She was born Abt. 1828 in North Carolina.

Notes for Henry Jordan:

Henry and brother Joseph were married by the same Justice of the Peace.

Kem Luther says:

"In the 1850 census I found a Henry and Hanna Jordan from North Carolina, ages 28 and 22, with children Mary E. (b. circa 1847) and Howard (b. circa 1849), living next to a David and Mary Bivans and six children. David Bivans may be related to the Joseph A. Bivans who married Elisha's oldest daughter. The Bivans came from Wales about 1840. The Bivans connection makes me think that this Henry Jordan must be related to Elisha. He may be an older brother. The Bivans and Jordans in the 1850 census were in Perry Township. They may have been living about mile southwest of Chasetown, in the same area that an 1870s plat map places Elisha Jordan and S. J. Bivans, the father-in-law of Elisha's daughter.

This family is very hard to trace.

- + 212 ii. Mary Elizabeth Jordan, born 06 Apr 1857 in Brown County, OH.; died 30 Aug 1923 in Fayetteville, Brown Co., OH..
- 213 iii. Winfield Jordan, born 19 Dec 1861 in Brown County, OH.; died 01 Jan 1892 in Perry Twp., Brown Co., OH..

Notes for Winfield Jordan:

Went insane. Possibly had epilepsy. On the 25th of February 1886, Elisha sent a desperate note via his physician in Marathon, S. B. Judkins, to the Clermont County, Ohio judge, asking for help to take Winfield to the asylum in Georgetown. Winfield had attacked his mother and was threatening the rest of the family. Elisha was holding him in straps. A day later Elisha took Winfield to the asylum himself. Winfield died 6 years later. Elisha was described as a good man with a fine farm.

He married (3) Delilah Ann Bronson 10 Apr 1852 in Clermont Co., OH..

Notes for Miles Jordan:

Miles (listed as son of Joseph) was assigned to Guardian Silas V. Jordan 11th May 1840 for $600, when Miles was 17.

Docket #1322 in Clermont Co. Probate Court reads:

Know all men by these Presents, that we Silas V. Jordan, John Beatty & William Slone, of Clermont County, Ohio, are held and firmly bound unto the State of Ohio, in the penal sum of six hundred dollars, the payment whereof well and trully to be made, we do bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, &c. jointly and severally, firmly by these presents, sealed with our seals and dated, Batavia, this 11th day of May A.D. 1840. The condition of the above obligation is such that whereas the above bound Silas V. Jordan hath been appointed by the court of Common Pleas for said County, Guardian to Miles Jordan aged 17 years him of Joseph Jordan. Now if the above Silas V. Jordan shall discharge with fidelity the trust reposed in him and render an accurate statement of his transactions, with a just account of the profits arising and accruing from the real or personal estate of his said ward and deliver up the same to the Court aforesaid when thereunto required, then the above obligation to be void, otherwise to remain in full force and virtue. Signed, Silas V. Jordan, John Beatty, Wm. Slone.

Notes for Mariah S. Sly:

From the Clermont Courier (1849):

Died , on Saturday, July 14th, at his residence near Edenton, in Wayne township, Mr. Peter Huffman, aged about 33 years. His disease was typhus fever.....He has left a young wife and four small children.

Died, on Thursday, July 10th, at the same house, and of the same disease, Mr. Nathaniel Jordan, Sen'r, aged about 65 years. He was the father-in-law of Mr. Huffman, and was taken sick on his returning from his funeral....

Child of Mary Jordan and Peter Huffman is:

- 289 i. Amos⁹ Huffman³⁹¹, born 22 Feb 1841 in Edenton, Clermont Co., Ohio. He married Kate W. Randall³⁹¹ 16 Oct 1866 in Ohio³⁹¹.

Notes for Amos Huffman:

From The History of Clinton County Ohio, by W.H. BEERS AND COMPANY. Found at <http://www.heritagepursuit.com/Clinton/ClintonIndex.htm>,

AMOS HUFFMAN, Adams, was born near Edenton, Clermont Co., Ohio, on the 22d day of February, 1841. His father's name was Peter Huffman, son of Frederick Huffman, who emigrated from New Jersey with his family at an early day, and settled on Hunter's Run, near where West Woodville now is. His mother's name was Mary, daughter of Nathaniel Jordan, who came to Ohio from, at or near, Edenton, N. C. His mother died when he was five years of age, and his father survived his wife but three years, leaving three children, of whom Amos was the eldest. a few months after his father's death, and in accordance with his request, he made his home with and became a member of the family of James Scott, in the immediate vicinity of West Woodville. Here his boyhood days were pleasantly spent. Through winter months, he attended the village school near by, and the balance of the year he was engaged in labor upon the farm. At the age of twenty, in August, 1861, he enlisted in the service of his country, and became a member of Company C, Second Ohio Volunteer Infantry, the company being commanded by Capt. W. T. Beatty, and the regiment by Col. L. A. Harris. He left Camp Dennison on the 24th day of September, 1861, his regiment being ordered to service in Eastern Kentucky, by the way of Paris, Mount Sterling and Mud Lick Springs to West Liberty, where it had its first engagement with the enemy, after a forced march of over forty miles. From here the regiment went to Prestonburgh, and soon after was engaged in the battle of Ivy Mountain. In December following, his regiment was transferred by way of the Big Sandy and Ohio Rivers to Louisville. The regiment was placed in Mitchell's command, and served under him until Buell's retreat to Louisville, in the fall of 1862. Leaving Louisville about the 1st of October, on the 8th of that month the regiment participated in the battle of Perryville, where it lost heavily in killed and wounded. Shortly after, his regiment was engaged in the sanguinary battle of Stone River, which lasted several days from the time the skirmishers first became engaged. Up to this time, Mr. Huffman had been constantly with his regiment, participating in all skirmishes and battles in which it had been engaged. On the morning of December 31, 1862, after McCook had been driven back on the right, Rousseau's division, of which the Second Ohio was a part, was ordered to the center, it having been in reserve. The brigade, of which the Second Ohio formed a part, was ordered to the support of the batteries on the elevation between the railroad and pike, and while so doing were charged on by the rebels in column by regiments. Here it was that Mr. Huffman fell, wounded in the left knee by a minnie ball. After the rebels were driven back, Corporal Huffman was carried off the battle-field to the field hospital, where his leg was amputated. Here he remained, suffering intensely, but slowly recovering, until the 8th of April, 1863, when he was discharged and sent home. The following winter, he attended school near Ogden, Clinton County, he at the time living in the family of and going to school to I. W. Quinby. Afterward, for about two years, he was engaged in mercantile pursuits at Ogden, in 1865, being elected Assessor of Adams Township. On the 16th day of October, 1866, Mr. Huffman was married to Kate W. Randall, daughter of John D. and Jane Randall, of Clermont County, and soon after became a resident of Wilmington. In August, 1867, at the Republican primary election, he was nominated for County Treasurer, and was elected to that office the following October. In 1869, he was again elected to the same office. After serving in this capacity for o terms of two years each, a constitutional provision forbidding another succeeding term, Mr. Huffman retired from the office, enjoying the confidence of all who knew him, and with the reputation of having made a faithful, competent and obliging officer. Having purchased a farm in Adams Township, about the time of the expiration of his term of office as County Treasurer, he soon after removed to the same, where he now resides, respected and esteemed by all who know him. His family consists of his wife and three children, two daughters and one son.

- 308 ii. Leslie S. Jordan⁴³⁴, born 24 Mar 1879 in Georgetown, Brown Co., OH.; died in Missouri. He married Sarah Ellen Tracy; born 1888.

Notes for Leslie S. Jordan:

Leslie worked as a Hired Hand for Alvah A. Rock in 1920 in Ridge Township, Dickinson County, Kansas. His wife was referred to as Ellen Jordan at the time, on the census. With them is their 13 yr. old son Dorance. By 1930 census, Ellen is the spouse of Alvah, Leslie is gone and Dorance is still with them and 23. Ellen is referred to as Sarah E. Rocks on the census.

There has always been some family speculation that Leslie was murdered (and possibly with the encouragement of his wife). We know he died in Missouri. This requires a lot more investigating though.

180. 1830 Federal Census, Chowan Co., NC., Pg. 330 (Pg. 19 in Ancestry.com), Line 1, Spelled "Darchus" here. Darkis' husband must be dead. She is next to William Jordan (age 40-49) and Thomas Jordan (Age 40-49). It seems likely that this William and Thomas are brothers. This Thomas could even be our Thomas.

477. Rachel Jenkins Email of 12/28/2003, John Jordan (may have been born John Dail) b. 1 Dec. 1831 sources vary, but most say NC. m. 14 Feb 1856 to Mary Susan Wales, date according to family information. I have not been able to prove it. Mary was born in Bartholomew Co. Indiana. Her family moved to Iowa. I don't know what took John to Iowa but the story is that her family did not approve of him so they ran away. I have not been able to find a marriage record. Their children: 1. Mary M. "Mel" Jordan, b. 1 Nov 1856 in Iowa (not certain) 2. Alice C. Jordan, b. 10 Sep 1859 in KY (not certain) 3. James Jordan, b. 17 Mar 1862 in OH 4. Mattie and Hattie Jordan (twins) b. 16 Mar 1869 in IN 5. Chris Jordan, b. 29 Sep 1871 in Morgan Co. IN Chris is my grandfather. John Jordan d. 15 Feb. 1918 in Indianapolis. buried in West Union Church Cem, Monrovia, Morgan Co. IN. .
