Generation No. 1

1. Unk<sup>1</sup> Reddick

Notes for Unk Reddick:

This entry is for record keeping purposes only.

1730

WE ARE NOT CERTAIN who the father of our William Reddick (b. 1760) is. It is known that a Robert Reddick lived in Lancaster Co., PA. in the 1730s-to-1799. It is known he had a son Robert Reddick Jr. who married Agness. They and their children are buried in Leacock Pres. church in Lancaster Co., Pa. According to the Power of Attorney, a Robert Reddick had a son William or a brother William.

1758

(a reference to a George Reddick, from "The Dern Family of Frederick County, Maryland" by Ed Bergh Jr.)

Leonard Jr.'s grandfather, George Reddick came to the colonies sometime before 1758. He died on December 7, 1785, in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. One of sons, Leonard Jr., moved to Maryland at some point, but the first record of his presence there was his purchase of 195.5 acres from Francis Brown Sappington for the sum of 1,125 pounds. What he used his land for is unclear, but he did make whiskey. Mary Rhoderick wrote: "Seems as though Leonard, Sr. operated a Whiskey Still and sold whiskey by the barrel in Baltimore and Washington. He never seemed to pay a bill until the constable came to him with a warrant. There are many of these warrants made out to him." Leonard Reddick Sr. died in 1827. His estate covered the cost of his $9.00 coffin. As part of the estate settlement Leonard Jr. sold his father's slave, Harriet, for $305.00. This was done on August 2, 1831. The slave was sold to his brother John Reddick.

1767

There is a John Reddick whose children's baptism records are recorded in Pres. Church records from 1767-1772 in Adams Co. PA. (near Lancaster Co.). These children ended up in Fayette Co., PA. (Robert), Fayette Co., KY. (William:is this the William above?) and Cambell Co. KY. (Rebecca and James). These people are known to be related because Agness (above) mentions them in her Will, as cousins.

1772

A Christian Reddick arrived in Pa. in 1772, according to Filby's Immigration Lists.

1780's

A John Reddick (Redick, Reddich) appears in tax records for Lebanon Township, Lancaster Co. (at that time), Pennsylvania.

1799

Roll 2310, Lancaster Co., PA. Index to deeds, L-R, 1729-1894, Pg. 133. Shows William Reddick as the Grantee and Robert Reddick as the grantor, giving William the Power of Attorney. Actual deed is in Book F., Vol. 3 Pg. 271. Date of deed is April 8 1799, Date of Record is May 8, 1799.

Child of Unk Reddick is:

+ 2            i. William R.<sup>2</sup> Reddick, born 1760 in Ireland; died 03 Oct 1831 in Lawrence, Indiana.

Generation No. 2

2. William R.<sup>2</sup> Reddick (Unk<sup>1</sup>)<sup>1,2,3,4,5,6,7,8,9,10,11,12,13,14,15,16,17,18,19,20</sup> was born 1760 in Ireland, and died 03 Oct 1831 in Lawrence, Indiana. He married Anna Margareth Trump 1785 in Lancaster Co., PA., daughter of Johan Trump and Anna Wetzel. She was born 21 Aug 1768 in Gwynedd, Montgomery Co., PA.<sup>21</sup>, and died Jan 1859 in Clinton Co., IL..

Notes for William R. Reddick:

I have no source for the R. in William's name. It was seen in other's genealogies.

1777

Fought in Revolutionary War in Capt. Lawrence Keene's Company of Col. John Patton's Pennsylvania Regiment. Served 6 years from 1777 to 1783 (end of war). He held the rank of Private and was a drummer and/or fifer. Has been documented as having served at Valley Forge. Discharged in 1783 while in the Company commanded by Capt. Doyle of the 1st Pennsylvania Regiment. Was in the battles of Brandywine, Germantown and Monmouth and at the capture of Cornwallis.

1778

Served with Patton's Regiment, 3rd Division(Lafayette's Division), 4th VA. Brigade under the Company of Capt. Walter Bicker, while at Valley Forge. No status listed on Muster rolls for Dec. 1777, Jan., Feb., Mar., Apr., May, June of 1778. His rank is listed as Drum and Fife, Rank type: Rank and File. (<http://valleyforgemusterroll.org/>)

NOTE: There is another Reddick Shown in the same Brigade as William (4th VA.) and Division (3rd). He is listed as being from VA. or joined there. His name is Jason Reddick. His rank is Captain and is shown as serving in "Riddicks" Company (so it may be his company).

1779

NOTE: It is unknown as of now, the name of William's father or brothers/sisters. There was a John Reddick appearing in Lebanon Twp., Lancaster Co., PA. in the tax assesments of 1779 and 1780. John's name is alternately spelled Redick, Readigh and Redig. (Roll #29, Lancaster Co., PA. Tax Records, 1748-1855, Lebanon Twp. 1750-1783, located in PA. State Archives)

1780

Pa State Archives Record Books: Vol. 3, 5th series. William Reddick, drummer, 11th Pa. Continental Line, under the command of Lt. Col. Adam Hubley, 2nd March 1780.

1785

Married in Lancaster Co., by Rev. Stoury (Presbyterian). I have no proof of this. It was shown by other genealogists.

1790

(two possible census occurances of William)

Unknown for sure where William was. HOWEVER, there is a William Raturc, which could very well be William Reddick (think of an accent), in the 1790 Pennsylvania, Chester Co. Goshen Township census, on pg. 1. He has the correct number of male and female children, BUT all the males are listed in the over 16 column. 2 should be in the under 16 column. But, this could simply be a mistake of how the census taker collected information. Goshen Township (were West Chester city is) and more so, Chester County, would make sense as a place to find our William in 1790 because he ended his military career in that area (Philadelphia). As well, his spouse was born and lived in the county just above this one (Montgomery) and very close to Goshen Twp. There was a road leading directly from West Chester to Lancaster city at the time, which makes it easy to imagine William traveling to Lancaster county.

There is also a William Redig in the 1790 census of Berks County, Union, Pg. 2. This William has the correct number of children of the correct age, if John was not a son of his, or had died by 1790. This entry makes even more sense since there is a Michael Trump on the same page. William's wife was a Trump. Union Township is right on the Berks County line next to Montgomery and Lancaster counties. It is also not far from Hereford Township, Berks, Co. where Trumps were known to reside at one point. Hereford Township is right next to Upper Hanover Twps. (contains Gwynedd) in Montgomery Co.

Unknown where William is. Best guess is that he is on the 1800 Census for Hopewell, Washington Co., Pa. Pg. 6 of 7. There do not seem to be enough children on the census, but the ones there could be of the correct age to match most of whom are in this genealogy. Hopewell is very close to West Virginia, and once was part of Virginia until around 1781. These facts could account for some of William's children claiming they were born in Virginia. It is likely that several of the children born between Lancaster Co., Pa. and Ohio, or Kentucky, were not 100% sure of their birth location.

Abt. 1805

Move to Bracken Co., Kentucky.

1800's

Operated a ferry from the mouth of Bullskin River on the Ohio side (in eastern Clermont Co.) to an opposite Kentucky landing in the early 1800's. Rev. War soldiers Edward Poe and Isaac Day are buried in the cemetery in the Sharon Cemetery near the ferry landing on the Kentucky side; that cemetery associated with the "Sharon Meeting House", a log church used by several denominations in the early 1800's. Several Reddicks married Days.

NOTE: Grave was moved from the home farm in Lawrence Twp. Indiana to the cemetery in the center of Fort Harrison, Indiana, and marked by Caroline Scott, Harrison Chapter of DAR, July 11, 1963. A state park is there today.

Living in Bracken Co. Kentucky near Isaac Day. Listed on census as Wm. Riduck. Has 6 males listed and 5 females.

1812

Supposedly migrated to Clermont Co., Ohio, according to Clermont Co. Genealogical Society.

1816

Appears in: INDEX TO AN ACCOUNT BOOK OF A GENERAL STORE in the area of Indian Creek in Washington Township, Clermont Co., Ohio. Entries cover the years 1816-1819, but the owner's name is not listed.

1818

He continues as saying:

And that he is a daily laborer and very infirm and much afflicted with the Gravel.

His family consists of his wife Margaret, aged 54 years but very infirm, his son Joshua aged 14 years but very weakly, a daughter named Helia aged 12 years also very weakly, Lucinda aged 10 years, Rachel aged 8 years, all of which depend on him for support.

The Clerk David C. Bryan declares total assets worth $40.25.

Margaret Reddick declaration to the US Circuit Court of the Indiana District, 22 Nov. 1838:

(I assume she is trying to obtain more pension)

Margaret declares herself as the wife of our William Reddick, who served in the Revolutionary War and declares that she was married in Lebanon County, Lebanon Twp. Pa. on an unknown date (she did not know the county was called that then) and that it was in the summer of the year 1785, soon after harvest and that William died on the 3rd day of October 1831, that she was not married to him prior to his leaving the service, but that the marriage took place previous to the first of January 1794. She believes there is no record of the marriage and being unable to obtain a record and haveing no record of the ages of her children she prays that the evidence of her third child may be taken in the case, and such other oral testimony that she may be able to produce, and that she has remained a widow ever since the death of her said husband.

Increase in Pension to Margaret Reddick, widower.

It states that Margaret moved from Madison Indiana to Indianapolis, Indiana in 1856. Yet the increase paper reads like this:

Madison (crossed off, and Ind. written in) Indiana

Margaret Reddick

who served in the Revolutionary

War, as a Private

Increased from $80 per annum

Inscribed on the roll at the rate of 96 dollars 00 cents per annum, to commence on the first day of July 1848

Newton Reddick, grandson of William, later declared that the Reddick family records of William were all burned, but that William was a Fifer Major for General Washington. (The records indicate that he was a "drummer" though).

-----
It is speculated that William had a sister Nancy Agnes Reddick (b. 4/14/1769-Ireland). This is based on no real proof. Agnes married James Starr in 1786 in NJ. supposedly. They had 10 children shown born in OH, WVa., MD. and VA. Some say she died in 1822 in Barnesville OH. All or some of this may be true or not! THIS IS NOT THE AGNES TALKED ABOUT BELOW.

There is a 1799 deed from William Reddick to Adam Reigart. William Reddick is in Fayette Co., KY. William is said to be one of the cousins of (deceased) "Agness Reddick, late of the borough of Lancaster in the county of Lancaster in the state of Pennsylvania...and one of the legatees under the last Will and Testament of the said Agness Redeck...and the attorney...for James Redick and David Walker who intermarried with Rebecca Reddick, which said James and Rebecca are two other cousins and ..legatees...under the Will of said Agness Redick." William is also said to be acting for "Robert Redeck one other cousin, and Legatee...under the Will of Agness Redeck." The Will mentions a Power of Attorney from Robert, and places Robert in Westmoreland Co., PA. This info. was collected by Henrietta Freeman. She also had documents showing the father of Agness was Robert Reddick, SR.

Here is the most logical summary:

There is a (1)Robert Reddick in Lancaster Co., Pa. in the 1730's.

He apparently had a son (2)Robert Jr. Robert Jr. married Agness. They and their children are buried in Leacock Pres. church in Lancaster Co.

Robert had a brother (2)John Reddick, whose children's baptism records are recorded in Presbyterian records from 1767-1772 in Adams Co., Pa. THESE children ended up in Fayette Co., Pa. ((3)Robert), Fayette Co., KY. ((3)William), and Cambell Co., KY. ((3)Rebecca and (3)James). These people are known to be related because Agness' daughter's Will names them a cousins. The Power of Attorney mentioned above appears to be between the brothers (3)Robert and (3)William.

OUR William (born c. 1760) could very well be a brother of Robert and/or John!

NOTE: There were also Reddicks, of David Reddick fame in Cumberland Co., Pa. at this time. Cumberland Co. was/is right next to Adams Co., Pa.
-----

IN ADDITION: There is a William Ruddock b.c. 1685 of York Co., Pa. (close to Lancaster Co.), who moved onto NC., but is reported to have had a son named Robert who stayed in Pa. and got out of the Quaker faith. This could be the ROBERT who was in Lancater Co., in the 1730's!
-----

1776

DAR Patriot Index, Volume III, P-Z, shows a John Reddick, b. c. 1749, died c. 1/11/1822 in Pa. Married to Elizabeth. Rank of Ensign.

1776

On a 1776-80 petition from Washington Co., Pa. the names William, Thomas and Joseph Reddick are listed. William's name is listed on a delinquent tax list of 1787, and he is listed under Smith and Hanover Twp. Pa., in the Narrow and Thorn's Run drains.

1790

A William Reddick in Allegheny Co., Pa. on 1790 census is shown in the portion of that county taken from Washington Co. In 1789 he is on a list of persons in the Montour church. His Will was probated in Moon Twp., Pa., in 1810, with children listed as John and Margaret. Margaret married James Justus.

-----
Here is a line written by Lewis M. Ruddick (based on the work of John Hanneman), which may be correct!

1.) Robert Ruddock, son of William (?), born c. 1712, PA. found on Pennsboro Township, Lancaster Co., with 300 acres of land, surveyed on 1/31/1737. Additional 137 acres surveyed 5/13/1746.

Oaklandon Unitarian Universalist Church History

William Reddick was born in Ireland about 1762, came to America with his parents when eleven years of age. When he arrived in America he was bound to a weaver in Pennsylvania. At age thirteen years he ran away and enlisted in Wayne's division and served in the Revolutionary war six years and seven months. In 1805 he moved to Ohio. During the war of 1812 he kept ferry at the mouth of Bull Skin, forty miles above Cincinnati in Clermont County. At the close of the war he married Margaret Trump. He came to Lawrence Township in the fall of 1824. Hard working farmers, the Reddicks were considered prosperous for the time having migrated from Pennsylvania with two yoke of oxen, two horses, twenty-five hogs, two milk cows and twelve sheep. He entered for his son Joshua one hundred and sixty acres of land just northwest of the mouth of Mud Creak. He lived on that farm until his death, in October 1831, at the age of sixty-nine. He lay out and set apart the first graveyard in the township. He was a Methodist nearly all his life, and was a moral and strictly honest man. Among the first recorded settlers of the township were Elijah (son of William and Margaret) and Elizabeth Reddic who farmed a sizeable homestead in what is now the City of Lawrence. Son Joshua, was born in Washington county PA and came to this township in November of 1823. He settled on the farm now known as the Elijah Fletcher farm, and one hundred and sixty acres of which was entered for him by his father in 1825. Mr. Joshua Reddick was a farmer, and in religious belief a Universalist. The Reddicks were active members in the Oakland Universalist Church. He took a great interest in all public improvements and gave all his children a good education. He had eight children; seven were born in this township and one in Illinois.

HOPEWELL, the seventh of the list of original townships of Washington County, formed July 15, 1781, embraced at the time of its erection the territory of the present townships of Hopewell, Independence, Cross Creek, and Jefferson, and part of that of Mount Pleasant. The successive erections of the last-named four townships reduced the area of Hopewell to its present boundaries, which are, on the north, Cross Creek township; on the northeast and east, Mount Pleasant and Canton; on the south, Buffalo; and on the west the township of Independence. The principal streams of Hopewell township are the south branch of Cross Creek and Brush Run of Buffalo Creek, which respectively mark the northern and southern boundaries of the township. A number of smaller creeks and runs flow into these streams from the north and south, heading in the dividing ridge which extends in an easterly and westerly direction through Hopewell north of its centre.

One of the earliest white settlers within the present limits of Hopewell township was Jesse Martin, who received a Virginia certificate, dated at Redstone Old Fort, Dec. 6, 1779, for a tract of land in Ohio County, Va. (which county, as then claimed by the State of Virginia, covered all the west part of the present county of Washington), "situate on the waters of Buffalo Creek, and to include his settlement, made in the year of our Lord 1772." This fixes definitely the date of Martin's settlement on the tract granted by the certificate. Its location was in the present township of Hopewell. When afterwards surveyed it was found to contain four hundred and five acres, and was named "Buffalo." It adjoined lands of William Slemman, John Johnston, and Hugh H. Brackenridge. It was sold by Martin in 1785 to Robert Caldwell.

Notes for John Reddick:

This person may not correctly fit as a child of William Reddick. Speculation based on other genealogies.

He may also have died at an early age.

1810

A John Ridick of the about the correct age appears in the census for Pennsylvania, Indiana County, Center Twp., Page 2.

Notes for Elizabeth Reddick:

I only found this Elizabeth Reddick listed on one document and she is proven on the marriage bond of 1829 existing in Nelson Co., KY. I do not know for sure if she is a daughter of our William but it does look like it.

- + 15     xiii. Lucinda Reddick, born 1810 in Bracken Co., KY.; died Aft. 1884 in Adair Co., MO..

He went to Kentucky with his parents around 1820, came to Marion Co., Indiana about 1823 and in 1832 settled in Lawrence Township, Indiana. He was a Republican.

1871 - Richard Reddick Will, as copied into thye court record book of Warren County, Indiana, in 1871. (Kem Luther, 1995).

Richard's Will was originally recorded in Brown County, OH. and transferred to the records of Warren Co., Indiana, to facilitate the disposal of his properties in Warren Co. The Will is witnessed and attested by Thomas and Mary Sheldon. It is written on 29 Oct. 1869. It mentions his sons Elisha, Thomas M., and Martin, and his daughters Amanda Held and May Creager, and wills to them parts of his estate. It also mentions, but leaves nothing to, his daughters Eliza Brown, Susan Bush, and Elizabeth Cooper, and his son William H.

The estate papers were ultimately filed on or after Feb. 1883 (the latest date recorded in the papers) by John W. Sutton. Sutton and Elias Schlosser became bondsmen for the estate in Feb. 1877. Presumably Sutton took over the administration at that time. He became administrator "de bonus non". The original administrator, however, was Jacob Held, Richard's son-in-law. He was appointed on 26 Oct. 1871, with Henry Held and Henry Herick (sp?) as guarantors. The land was not sold, and the bequests disbursed, until Sutton took over the administration. Richard's death date, according to a deposition of Jacob Held, was on 20 Aug. 1871.

Notes for Isaac Wells:
A very confusing family.

In the 1830 census of Clermont Co., Tate Twps., in Ohio, a John and Issac Wells appear. They are on the same page as William Reddick Jr., son of William Reddick and Margaret Trump. But these Well's seem to be the children of Isaac Wells Sr., (husband of Margaret Reddick (sister to William Jr.)). But the age they show in the 1830 census would make this John and Issac Jr. born to an earlier spouse of Issac Wells Sr. They are too old to be Margaret Reddick's Children, if she married Issac Wells Sr. in 1807. (unless the census is wrong)

The 1830 census for Warren Co., Indiana (Pg. 7 of 36) shows an Isaac Wells with family , all of the potentially correct age as well as all of the correct gender! As well...on this page is a James Herrin family. A daughter of Elisha "Lish" Reddick married a Herrin. So Isaac's death may have been after 1830.

However, the 1830 census shows an Isaac Wells living in Clermont Co., Ohio (on the same page as William Reddick Jr., brother of the wife of Isaac, Margaret). Is this Issac Sr.'s son?

Notes for George Reddick:

From Pioneer Cemeteries and their Stories, Madison Co., Indiana.

at http://www.cemeteries-madison-co-in.com/stonycreek\_twp.htm.

Stony Creek Township is named after the little stream that runs through it. As related in several history books a group of families came in 1823 to the present site of Fishersburg: Benjamin and John Fisher, D.E. and H. Studley, John Anderson, and George Reddick. However, a 1903 Lapel newspaper credits Benjamin Fisher with arriving in 1820. This date would make Benjamin a contender for the second settler in the county. His rivals would be Jacob Hiday in Green Township and William Dilts in Union Township. John Rogers in Fall Creek Township is acclaimed the first in 1818. Other settlers to Stony Creek in the 1830s were James and Jesse Gwinn, W.A. Alred, Thomas Busby, Arbuckle Nelson, and John McDole and their families.

Stoney Creek Township became Fishersburg, after the first settlers..

Fishersburg is just adjacent to Hamilton County, where George Reddick is found in census data in 1830, with a Willaim Reddick.

An article titled "Early Settlers" from an unidentified Lapel newspaper published in October 1903 tells of the family's (Fisher's) migration to Stony Creek and the events which brought about Benjamin's death:

"Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Fisher, from Clermont County, Ohio, in June of 1820...in a wagon came to Indiana. They drove through Winchester to Anderson, Indiana, the latter place being then merely an Indian Village, with no white people living there. The old chief Anderson, for whom the town was named, was living there at the time.

The above implies that a George Reddick went to Indiana, not that far from Marion Co., Indiana, in 1823. This is the same year that Elisha Taylor Reddick migrated to Marion Co. from Clermont Co., Ohio. The story of the founding of Stoney Creek indicates that the settlers came from Clermont Co., Ohio. This most likely infers that George Reddick came from Clermont Co., Ohio.

---

An 1876 Palt Map still shows Reddicks living in Stoney Creek Township

---

In 1850, George Reddick, son of William Reddick and Phebe Tharp also lives in Wayne, Hamilton Co., Indiana, as this George does.

Notes for (possible) Thomas W. Reddick:

THIS ENTRY IS SPECULATION. THIS person may be a child of William Reddick (b. 1760). Don't take this as gospel.

Shows himself as being born in 1803 in the 1860 Census! And 1810 on 1880 Census. Apparently he is unsure of his birth date.

It seems likely that this Thomas William is actually a brother of Richard and not his son. He may have lived with Richard? And thus the confusion? Several genealogists list him as son of Richard Reddick.

This Thomas ended up in Illinois, which is where many of William Reddick/Margareth Trump's children ended up. Whereas most, if not all, of Richard's children stayed in Ohio or went to Indiana.

Judy Gilker stated that Thomas was born in Hamilton Co., OH. Said he was a stone mason and fought in the Black Hawk War. Said he died in Brown, Pike Co., IL. in 1899. He married in Rushville, Schuyler Co., IL. Lived in Hamilton Co., OH., Cooperstown/Buckhorn Twn., Brown Co., IL. Buried in Fishhook, Pike Co., IL.

Had adopted Rosa Billings (b. 1870) on the 1880 Census.

From Shirley Botkin:

Joshua came to Lawrence Twp., Marion Co., IN. in Nov. 1823, probably was among those who built a cabin for brother Elisha. After he/they satisfied the need to raise a crop to see the family thru winter 1824-25, Joshua returned to Clermont Co., OH., then brought his parents and younger sisters to the new settlement. It is not now known if they raised a cabin to house the family separately on Elisha's land. In 1825 father William entered 160 acres of land for Joshua (then age 20-21). This land was north of Fall Creek, while Elisha's land was on the south side of Fall Creek. Joshua's is represented on the map inclosed as 67+ acres owned by T. P. Silvey. (Tom Silvey married 4 times, 3 of his wives were Johnsons). Silvey owned the "old Joshua Reddick Farm" from 1852-1872 when he sold to Elijah Fletcher.

A cabin was erected NW of the mouth of Mudd Creek where Joshua and his parents lived. Two of the sisters married before him. For 7 years religious sermons were held in his home. On this land William, his father, denoted a burial ground. The Lawrence Twp. History published 1884 states the site was then known as Tom Silvey Graveyard and was still in use. A newspaper article among family relics, not dated, identifies this graveyard as Zook Cemetery but places it on Elisha Reddicks land. It was further located as in Fairwood Hills area on Fall Creek Road, which runs on the "old Joshua Reddick farm". It is not now known who was the last person buried there.

The sketch page 539 of Lawrence Township History reported that Joshua sold the farm in 1848 when he moved to Illinois. Elsewhere it is said that T. P. Silvey bought the farm on 1852. Joshua Reddick and family is reported in the 1850 census of Lawrence Twp., Marion Co., IN.

Appears on the census with a male child names Elliot M. Reddick. This is most likely an adopted child.

The child Elliot M. is now shown as having a full name of Elliot Martin! As well there is another female living there who may be adopted as well. She is Mary Waits (age 20), listed as simply "at house", and not as a domestic. Mary later married Elisha R. Creager in 1886. In 1870 census there are several Wait children scattered among several close families, near Martin. I did not see Mary however.

Blind man burns to death

George W. Reddick, the blind man burned to death Thursday. He had been using gasoline and his clothes took fire as he was warming his hands.

One of the most fearful tragedies that have ever took place in Ashland occurred about noon on Thursday, when George Reddick lost his life in a gasoline fire. It happened at the home of his brother Charley, in the northwestern part of the city. George was cleaning a suit of clothes in a kettle containing several gallons of gasoline. Working in the open air, near the house, his hands became cold. He went into the house to warm his hands at the stove. His clothes being saturated with gas, in an instant they were ablaze from the heat of the stove. He ran outside and the first person he attracted with his screams was Jack Trimmer, his nearest neighbor. Mr. Trimmer ran to his relief. He grasped a blanket lying near and threw it around the blazing man in hopes of smothering the flames. Not knowing the blanket had also been cleaned also. This was the fact however and it only added fuel to the fire.

By this means the fire was communicated to the kettle of gasoline, and in an instant a dangerous fire was burning near the house. The fire alarm was given and the department responded as quickly as possible. Neighbors came in large numbers, but not in time to save George's life. When the blazing mass of clothes was extinguished, it was reduced to near ashes and the poor victims body was literally cooked from his chin to his ankles. parts of the flesh sloughed off from the deep burns.

Dr. Clark was summoned and he arrived in a few minutes and relieved Georges suffering with the use of anaesthetics. In the course of a few hours he dropped off into a deep sleep from which he never awakened. He died at 8.30 p.m. about 8 hours after the accident.

Fire seemed to plague George all of his life. When he was four years old, he was burned so severely that it disfigured his face and destroyed his eyesight. The fire was under a kettle of boiling soap and the child was taken suddenly with a spasm of whooping cough. When his mother discovered him he was lying face down in the coals of the fire.

George had quite a genius for trade and not withstanding the severe handicap of deformity and blindness, he made a good living. He ran a notion store at mead at one time. From his accumulated earnings he invested in a Hotel and store property at Ithaca. A fire several years ago destroyed it all, without any insurance.

He was born in Scotland Co., Missouri and was in his 49th year when he died. in 1869 his fathers family settled on a homestead in Marble precinct, in the plainview neighborhood. Since that time his home has been in Saunders Co., for the last several years in Ashland. The Funeral was held at his home, with internment at the Ashland Cemetery.

Notes for Pleasant William Reddick:

From Judi Gilker:

I found this information in an old History of Schuyler County, Illinois: In November 1861, the grand jury returned an indictment against Pleasant REDICK for the murder of Thomas JACKSON. It seems Thomas JACKSON attacked Pleasant REDICK at his boarding house during a dance, when a fight broke out, over a dispute between the two men after JACKSON brought some of his friends to a dance. ( LaGrange, Brown County, Illinois ). Pleasant REDICK drew a knife and stabbed Thomas JACKSON, killing him instantly. Mr. REDICK was found guilty of manslaughter, sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary for his entire life. However, after serving a few years he was pardoned.

Leslie worked as a Hired Hand for Alvah A. Rock in 1920 in Ridge Township, Dickinson County, Kansas. His wife was referred to as Ellen Jordan at the time, on the census. With them is their 13 yr. old son Dorance. By 1930 census, Ellen is the spouse of Alvah, Leslie is gone and Dorance is still with them and 23. Ellen is referred to as Sarah E. Rocks on the census.

There has always been some family speculation that Leslie was murdered (and possibly with the encouragement of his wife). We know he died in Missouri. This requires a lot more investigating though.
